

A close-up photograph of a pug's face, showing its characteristic wrinkled skin and dark eyes. The pug's fur is a mix of light tan and white. The text is overlaid on the image in a black, decorative, calligraphic font.

A Pug's Tail...

Lulu Speaks

by Jeanne and Lulu Wolfe

ABOUT LULU

Lulu, an older pug dog was once “Mom to many puppies.” Her world changed when her owner no longer wanted to care for her. Lulu lived in a series of foster homes. Now thanks to a pug rescue group, a family wants to adopt her. Lulu is very eager to begin a happier life in her new “forever home.”

First, though, she must meet the interesting cast of various characters in her new extended family and learn to love, share and be kind.

Photo of the author and Lulu from Pugsgiving, Lakeland, FL 2006

Written and Illustrated by

Jeanne Marie Wolfe

(727) 483-0166

Web site: <http://www.jwolfedesignden.com>

E-mail: jeanne@jwolfedesignden.com

A Pug's *Tail... Lulu Speaks

About finding a forever home...

becoming part of a family...

and learning to love and be kind.

*As told to Jeanne Wolfe
by Lulu the Pug*

*Lulu is a very smart pug. She knows that her story is a t-a-l-e, but we thought Mardi Gras' curly tail was so cool we used it in the title.

Kasia (top), Lulu (left) and Mardi Gras (right), all rescued animals.

In memory of Tyson, fearless wonder dog and friend - with my son Michael.